

Leading Psychoeducational Groups for Children and Adolescents (Paperback)

By Janice L. Delucia-Waack

SAGE Publications Inc, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 249 x 175 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The goals of psychoeducational groups include prevention and early intervention, both of which are important for schools and agencies that work with at-risk children. Leading Psychoeducational Groups for Children and Adolescents focuses specifically on psychoeducational groups while also combining leadership skills and suggestions for how effectively to design and lead such groups-all in one book! This book provides an applied, pragmatic approach to leading psychoeducational groups generally, while addressing special issues relating to specific topical groups as well (e.g., children of divorce, grief, anger management, bullying behaviours). Key Features: o Contains tables with references for related resources that practitioners may use for designing their groups, including materials that address critical issues and themes for the group, group sessions, activities, suggestions for effective groups, and assessment measures o Provides guidance for the entire spectrum of activities related to leading groups, from planning to pre-group interviews and from initial sessions to termination sessions o Offers practical suggestions for how effectively to use activities in group meetings and chronicles common mistakes to avoid o Suggests methods for assessing group effectiveness as well as personal...
