He must have been engaged in the study of medicine for the period of four years. If admitted to advanced standing, he must have attended at least three full courses of medical lectures, the last two of which must be in thii Department, and have passed the required examinations. FACILITIES FOR INSTRUCTION. There are ample collections of plates, photographs, models, specimens, preparations, apparatus, and instruments, for illustrating the different studies embraced in the course. Additions are made from time to time to these collections so that the members of the Faculty are able to adopt every new method of illustration, and to exhibit to the classes each year all important improvements in the way of instruments and apparatus that are employed in the practice of medicine and surgery, and to show their application. The following paragraphs may serve to indicate the extent of some of these collections and the character of the work done in the several laboratories. For further information in regard to the University museums, laboratories, and libraries, see pages 18 to 29. MUSEUM OF ANATOMY. The museums of Professors Ford and Sager, embracing several thousand specimens, the result of many years labor in collecting and preparing materials intended to aid directly in teaching, are now the property of the University, and are used in the daily work of the class rooms. These museums contain a valuable collection of bones, illustrating healthy as well as diseased...
