This investigation was made in accordance with the terms of the appropriation act for this Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, which authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to investigate and report to Congress on the agricultural resources and capabilities of Porto Rico with special reference to the selection of locations for agricultural experiment stations and the determination of the character and extent of agricultural experiments immediately demanded by the condition of agriculture in that island. As the agent to make this investigation, Prof. S. A. Knapp, formerly of the Iowa Agricultural College and more recently engaged in
