That is, the said public did not respond with a loud and long Amen, when the subject was talked of in private, and written of in the local papers of Portsmouth. Not that the old town lacked the elements of hospitality, or the requisite amount of interest in the Sons abroad; only the spirit needed to be aroused. The masses everywhere are led by a few. We do not think or plan en masse, although we almost always execute by the aid of the whole people. So, while there was no positive opposition to the movement, there existed the usual amount of apathy which always attends the planning and starting of an enterprise of any great magnitude, and...
