At length she recollected that in her eagerness to examine the twenty puund note she had la;( received, she cast the letter enclosing it aside, and forgotten to look for it again. She at once, therefore, inferred that this was the one found by her brother-in law; and she was right, for having to leave the house so soon, she lost her usual caution, and left the envelope where it had been thrown. The house-maid found it on the following morning, and considering it to be merely a piece of waste-paper, carried it to another apartment in which she was about to light a fire. But the intentions of house-maids are as liable to overthrows as those of kings and ministers of stale; our damsel of the scrubbing-brush and dishclout had her more immediate attention directed to something of more moment, and the lighting of the fire was first deferred, and then posponed sine die. There it rested however, ready laid, and the telltale might still have been burnt out of the way, had not the wandering eyes of Mr. Way bluff, while waiting the enterence of his friend, detected the merchant s hand writing abutting from beneath the lowest bar of the grate. This would have excited no notice had not the identical words on which his gaze had alighted been the commencing sentence of the...
