European Contemporary Romance Series Book 5 Spanning several years, LOVE IN THE LAKES is a potent story of love, family secrets, deception and unquenchable desire. Lucie Meuret, now in her late twenties, returns to Keswick in Cumbria, after an absence of over four years. She has travelled from Saint Pargoire in the South of France to attend the funeral of Alan Mortimer, a man for whom her feelings are strongly ambivalent. In fact, she has had difficulty with all of the Mortimers, but especially Keir, with whom she shares a difficult and turbulent history. It would seem that the passing of time has eased painful memories and Lucie manages to renew the powerful bond that she shares with Keir. However, as she returns to France to look after her ailing Aunt Marie, the past returns to haunt Lucie and she re-lives the shattering events of her early years in Keswick. Various shocking revelations follow shortly after Alan s funeral and...
