Libraries and the Great War (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By William Howard Brett

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Libraries and the Great War This address, as it was read by Mr. Brett one year ago, deeply moved all of us who heard it. Its reading to-day moves us even more deeply, for the lips that spoke its written words were, a few weeks later, sealed in death. These pages might properly be called apologia pro vita sua; they unconsciously interpret Mr. Brett's purposes, give intimations of his methods, express somewhat his philosophy, and, above all else, breathe the spirit of the man as a good soldier of humanity. They are not only apologia; they form also a Nunc dimittis. And could any farewell message be more fitting for the dear and great man to speak, or a more inspiring or comforting one for us, as students and co-workers, to receive? This book may be really worth a read through, and a lot better than other. It is really basic but excitement inside the 50 % in the pdf. I realized this pdf from my dad and i encouraged this publication to learn.
