General. Since the commencement of the great war in August, 1914, the development and improvement of the Parks and proposed Boulevards to connect up the various areas into one composite system has remained in abeyance, and practically no expenditure has been incurred on capital account, which could be avoided without sacrificing expenditures already made. This policy has been carried out with increasing rigor during the seasons 1915, 1916, and the year just past, 1917, and, apart from the large amount of time and thought required in connection with the Power Company developments and operations, the efforts of the Park organization have been devoted to the maintenance of those areas and lengths of roadway that have heretofore been constructed and are so much used by the public for recreation and pleasure. From the beginning of the war it was deemed but right that moneys which could he conveniently saved for any emergency which might arise should not be expended upon the creation of a greater system of Parks when so much had already been accomplished in the great Niagara Park development. Much, however, still remains to bring the system into the front rank of Parks demanded by present-day practice, and the reserving of a considerable amount of work for...
