Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 130 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Power Outsourcing book is written by the former Harvard and UCLA Teaching Fellow and Sr. Lecturer. The author was chosen by Donald Trump himself to offer business coaching to Trumps VIP clients. More importantly, the author has practiced business and personal outsourcing for nearly a decade while teaching outsourcing at UCLA and other universities. Koz Khosravani has spent many years perfecting his outsourcing process and in fact spends most of his time travelling and vacationing while his work duties are being handled in India, Pakistan, Russia, Argentina, and of course, in many US states (some tasks are great for overseas and some better be handled locally. So, what can you learn here: It does not matter if its personal tasks at home (e. g. a virtual assistant taking care of all logistics and issues for your daughters upcoming birthday) versus professional tasks (e. g. marketing your law, tax or medical practice) or basically all tasks dealing with all your entrepreneurial ventures (if youre running your own business) -- basically have all your life tasks outsourced. So this is really a practical, no-nonsense book to introduce you to outsource every task in your personal, business, and professional life. No fancy theoretical principles, no usual academic-like book structure, etc. The goal of my effort is for you to know what I know after outsourcing hundreds of projects from 5 on fiverr. com to thousands of dollars on elance. com. The main idea behind outsourcing is that you have a task to take care of and you hire others to do it for you as simple as that. An example: someone in India designs a web site for you for a very reasonable cost,...
