

The Uncomfortable Church: Can Gays Be Reconciled to the Body of Christ? (Paperback)

---

By Lawrence Brice

Deep River Books, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. How is a Christian to view same-gender partners? And what is God's plan for love, sex, marriage, and ordination in the 21st century? Is it possible for Bible-believing Christians and gays and lesbians to reconcile and move toward a place of understanding? Dr. Brice, veteran pastor, television host, and author (Confident Faith, In a World That Wants to Believe, Deep River Books) says, Yes. It's not only possible, but it's long overdue! In this important book, Dr. Brice faithfully interprets scripture and, with honesty, defines traditional marriage. At the same time, he opens the doors for compassion and mission to a hurting and marginalized minority. Without shying away from the difficult questions posed by the revisionist's re-interpretation of scripture, or the heartfelt appeal of today's homosexuals for inclusion and value in our contemporary world, Dr. Brice offers hope, acceptance, and support for gays and lesbians who seek to live a godly, righteous life with the support of the church. In a scholarly, yet easily accessible way, Dr. Brice seeks to: clarify why conservative Christians can...
